

Friday, March 8th 2019: “What’s Next: Finding Your Pathway, EJB Bloustein School

10-11AM, Florio Special Events Forum: Bloustein in the workforce panel discussion

Moderators: Dr. Amy Abruzzi and Dr. Anita Franzione

Tiara Owens

BS’17 (Health Administration, Bloustein)

Currently: Administrator, Dept. of Neurosurgery, RWJ Medical School and current student in MHA program at Bloustein.

Jacob Persily

BS ’16 (Health Administration, Bloustein)

Currently: Decision Support Analyst, Nursing Division, Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital and 8 weeks from completing the MHA program at Bloustein.

Kamila Pavezzi, MPH, CHES

BS’ (Public Health, Bloustein)

Currently: Instructor of Professional Practice, E.J. Bloustein School, Rutgers.

Derrick Webb, HO, REHS, MPH, CPM

BS’11 (Public Health, Bloustein)

Currently: Deputy Director of Health/Assistant Health Officer, Health Department, Township of Mount Olive.

Ryan Jeter

BA ’10 (Howard University, Political Science)

Currently: Peace Corps Recruiter, Rutgers Global–Partnerships and second semester MPP student at Bloustein.

11 AM – 12 noon, Room 112: Coffee and Conversation – Let’s talk careers!

In addition to the panelists (most can stay), the following faculty will be participating in C&C:

Francis Barchi – global health

Mark Robson –global health

Francesca Maresca – health education

Marci Berger – public health, policy, planning

Amy Abruzzi- epidemiology, public health

Anita Franzione – public health, health administration

Mike McDonough – public health

Bobbi Andrews – public health